

Milford Community School Use Program

Biddy Basketball 2018/2019 Registration Form

The Biddy Basketball League is an in-town basketball program open to all boys and girls in Grades 2-8 regardless of ability or experience. Boys and Girls will play in separate leagues. This is a 10-game season that runs from early December up to February vacation.

A full game and practice schedule will be provided at the beginning of the season. There will be one scheduled practice a week. All games are played on Saturdays. Game times are scheduled on the hour and vary each week. Please note: In case of a game day cancellation due to inclement weather every effort will be made to make up the games during February vacation. Practices scheduled on school holidays will not be held that week. Cancelled practices will not be made up.

Teams are selected with every effort to create balanced teams. Players will be contacted with regards to team placement. All players will be placed on a team. Team tee-shirts are provided.

Grade 2 - Instructional only - develop fundamental skills

Grade 3/4 - Competitive with modifications - introduce the game of basketball to developing players

Grade 5/6 - Competitive - full competitive play following the Biddy Basketball rules.

Grade 7/8 - Competitive - full competitive play following the Biddy Basketball rules. Fouls will be called and can result in disqualifications.
